Monetary.

Business during the week has been brisk, and o note in monetary affairs. Though the Banks aging $3,25 gross. have not materially increased their discounts, vet and we think the prospect for a still greater ease in financial circles is encouraging. In the New York money market, we are advised that there has been an increased activity, but the probability of a long and expensive Eastern war has created mand. Veal Calves from $4 to $4; P lb gross. there, some anxiety as to the regular withdrawal of specie. There is but little disposition to take paper of long dates, and the offerings at most of the Banks are beyond their receipts, and cannot be met. The total amount in the Subtreasury at New York, is now $5,539,124, and the receipts at Liverpool, on Wednesday, took out $472,612 in specie.
